it is hardly likely that Carctaker O'Day, of National Park, will allow the school boys to use the diamond, owing to the heavy rain of yesterday. Testerday afternoon, when the Nationals-Athletics contast was called off, the field was a veritable sea of mud, and as it pained steadily from 3 c-dock until midnight, a hall game at 1 c-dock this afternoon is practically out of the question, even if the sun does ahine bright.

If these games are portioned until next week a double-header will be arranged for Tuesday, with Eastern and Western meeting in the opening encounter. This will allow Business and Central to play later in the day.

Should Carctaker O'Day allow the games to be staged this afternoon, Eastern and Western will clash at 1:20 o'clock. Rewer and Johnson, while pohnson has better curves than prewer. Nerve will tell the tale.
